

Emperor	Huángdi Xia Song (M) is the current emperor and has been for 118 years. The Emperor is seen as the divine embodiment of Gonggong and Zhurong, water and fire. The Emperor has absolute control over every aspect of the Huodese government and people.
Chancellery	Headed by Grand Chancellor Zeng Fang (M). He has an army of bureaucrats at his beck and call. These assistants are what's known as the Church of Fire's Light. The responsibilities of the Chancellery are advising the emperor and secretariat as well as reviewing edicts and commands.
Church of Fire's Light	The Church of Fire's Light is the formal title of the assistants of Grand Chancellor Zeng Fang. The vast majority of which are simple bureaucrats. However, there are several of which that are master spies and assassins obtaining information
Secretariat	Headed by the Senior Grand Secretary Duan Bo (M) and the three Grand Secretaries Lang Ling (M), Jia Kun (F), Cai Yang (F). Their responsibility is policy formulation and drafting all imperial decrees. They have to take the words of the Emperor and codify them into existing law and pass down to the Court of Judicature and Revision what existing laws need to be adjusted and erased.
Department of State Affairs	Led by Supreme Minister Su Shu (F) who is responsible to ordering and controlling the eight ministries.
Ministry of Personnel	Headed by Primer Minister Yi Jun (F). The Ministry of Personnel is responsible for civil appointments, merit ratings, promotions and demotions of officials, as well as the granting of honorific titles.
Ministry of Revenue	The Ministry of Revenue is led by Prime Minister Li Huo (M). He is responsible for population and land censuses, assessment and collection of taxes, and storage and distribution of government revenues.
Ministry of Rites	Led by Prime Minister Wan Lei (F). The ministry is responsible for management of imperial court ceremonies and ritual offerings, registration and supervision of priests, management of the Imperial examinations.
Ministry of War	The current Prime Minister is Tan Jiahao (M). He is responsible for appointments, promotions and demotions of military officers; and maintenance of military installations, equipment, and weapons.
Ministry of Justice	Under the control of Prime Minister Zheng Yi (M) and is responsible for the judicial and penal processes as well as setting the standards for the 28 schools of law.
Ministry of Works	Prime Minister Fu My (F) oversees the official weights and measures, construction and maintenance of transportation infrastructure, other government construction works, the provisioning of imperial equipment, exploitation of natural resources, hiring of artisans/laborers for temporary service, and regulation of public commerce and businesses.
Ministry of Magic	Overseen by Prime Minister Cassia Inda (F). They are responsible for holding the recordings of all prophecies, keeping catalogs of all the mythological events and persons/creatures involved, regulation of the UUU, and recognition/acquisitions of young potential mages.
Ministry of Communication	Currently under the control of Prime Minister Li Dai (F). She is responsible for the lines of communication to go between the different ministries and especially those that come from the local governments. They are also responsible for maintaining and controlling the Imperial post.

Court of Provincial Governors	Council of the three Provincial Governors: Xing Wen (M – South), Shi Long (M – Central), and Tao An (M – North). They convene to discuss issues among their provinces and what ones to take to Prime Minister Li Dai to be communicated to the other ministries.
Court of Imperial Stables	Administrant Qiao Yahui (F) manages state animal pasturage, stables and corrals, maintaining state vehicles, and overseeing the Imperial Post. The states pasturages include horses, camels, elephants, donkeys, griffons, and giant eagles.
Court of Placements	Currently held by Administrant Meng Huan (M) who oversees the laws and records dictating what sex is able to hold which positions in the public sector and careers in the private sector.
Court of the Imperial Treasury	This court is led by Administrant Hao Yuhan (M). He manages the census of the Huodi people as well as the assessment and collection of taxes.
Court of the Imperial Granaries	Overseen by Administrant Lin Rong (F) who manages the taxed goods and their storage especially grain and food sources.
Court of the Imperial Generals	Under the control of Administrant Hao Su (M). He oversees the military personnel and recruitment and the guards that protect the provinces and major cities.
Directorate of Armaments	Director Teng Lei (M) is responsible for acquiring all equipment for the Imperial Army as well as the guards of the provinces.
Court of Judicature and Revision	Led by Administrant Cheng Chin (F). She is responsible for reviewing judicial proceedings at all administrative levels and singling out the cases for a retrial by court officials or the Emperor himself.
Bureau of Investigative Sentries	Director Gong Fen (M) is responsible for appointing and organizing crime investigation. All major crimes across the provinces are handled by this bureau.
Bureau of Narcotics, Alcohol, and Poisons	Currently held by Director Du Lim (M) who is responsible for overseeing and regulating narcotics (Red Mud mostly), alcohol, and poison as well as recording and auditing their manufacturers.
Court of Imperial Infrastructure	Headed by Administrant Jia Hu (M). He oversees the state infrastructure projects as well as scheduling the major ones and hiring temporary workers for them.
Court of Public Commerce	Led by Administrant Luo Chunhua (F). She creates regulations for private services and products. These are then sent to the Court of Judicature and Revision to work out the complications and redundancy it may cause with other laws.
Court of Imperial Sacrifices	Headed by Administrant Ren Qingling (F), and she is responsible for conducting major state sacrificial ceremonies according to ritual regulations.
Court of Imperial Entertainment	Headed by Administrant Duan Zhu (F). The court is responsible for catering for the imperial household, central government officials, and imperial banquets honoring foreign envoys and other dignitaries.
Court of Imperial Clan	Led by Administrant Duan Fan (M) who oversees all matters pertaining to the imperial family. Especially with records of genealogy of the imperial family line.

Court of Imperial Regalia	Currently held by Administrant Wei Guowei (M). He is responsible for holding the Heirloom Seal of the Realm as well as documenting the various seals used and no longer in use by all the officials and noble families.
Court of State Ceremonies	Administrant Hou Chen (F) is responsible for organizing logistics and itineraries for all ceremonies to take place for all state events.
Directorate of Education	Led by Director Fu Tong-Mei (F) who is responsible for ensuring the standards of the Imperial Exam are set to an appropriate level as well as keeping records for those who have attempted and passed the test.
Directorate of Astronomy	Under the control of Director Yin Jianjun (M) and holds the responsibility of translating and recording all prophecies before they are given to the Ministry of Magic as well as keeping detailed and organized records of mythological events.
Directorate of Mystical Education	Director Peng Wen (M) monitors and instills regulations on the UUU as well as keeping track of the registered Huodi mages. In addition, the Directorate monitors the Bureau of Thaumaturgical Advantage Rearing and audits the acquisitions.
Directorate of Passes	Led by Director Shi Hualing (F) who oversees all road, bridge, canal, and tunnel projects led by the state. In addition, they also oversee maintaining existing ones.
Directorate of Palace Buildings	Led by Director Pan Hualing (F) who is responsible for ordering construction of new state buildings as well as maintaining current ones.
Directorate of Palace Service	Under the control of Li Hualing (F) who is in control of keeping and raising the standards of the servants of state locations.
Directorate of Smithies	Director Jin Mingxia (F) suggests regulations for the smiths, smelters, fletchers, bowyers, jewelry makers, artificers, plumbers, armorers, etc. She is also in charge of ensuring those that fall under her purview remain at the high standards that are enforced. In addition, she enforces that the craftsmen are supplying an adequate tax in their product form for the state.
Directorate of Husbandry and Agriculture (HAM)	Under the control of Director Cao Xiu (F). She suggests regulations and enforces existing regulations for farmers and herdsman. She also enforces adequate amounts of product are taken for taxes.
Directorate of Natural Preservation	Currently led by Director Fan Rong (F) who oversees the regulation and enforcement protecting the natural beauty of Huodi.
County Prefects	The County Prefects (M) are individuals appointed by their Gong that monitor the smaller towns and settlements.
Bureau of Fate Calculations	Headed by Director Chang Yunru (M) who records all prophecies told in their original form as well as finding new and taking care of existing oracles, astrologists, and soothsayers.
Bureau of Imperial Mythology	Director Fang Shen (M) is responsible for recording all mythical events as well as monitoring the locations of all known mythical beings in Huodi. They are also responsible for keeping records for known religious practices and beliefs of the other countries.
Department of UUU Governance	Led by Director Liu Renshu who oversees the governing board of the University of the Unusual and Unexplained Daemonium school.
Bureau of Thaumaturgical Advantage Rearing	Director Duan Xiaoqing (F) oversees the recognition and acquisition of children predisposed to magical gifts and beginning their education and training to being state mages. They are also responsible for monitoring the children's parents afterwards ensuring they remain compliant with the acquisition of their child.

Census Bureau	Headed by Director Yin Lifan (F). They oversee the accurate and timely completion of the triennial Grand Census.
Treasury Bureau	Under the control of Director Xiong Yi (M) who oversees the books to ensure everyone is paying taxes, and that they're being collected correctly. They also are responsible for allocating funds other branches of the government request.
General Account Bureau	Led by Director Qian Honghui (M). He is responsible for auditing the accounts of all the other branches.
Granaries Bureau	Currently led by Director Zhu Bingwen (M). He inspects that any Huodi or imported grains match the standard set forth by the Huodi government. He also oversees the imperial grain storage is kept safe and healthy.
League of Provincial Commanders	Group of military leaders from the different provinces that convene together to discuss joint issues and request assistance with them from the correct chain of command.
Chamber of Guards	Supervisor Han Yonguri (M) that is responsible for relaying information to from the various guard duty stations about current relevant threats.
Guild of Quartermasters	Currently led by Supervisor Liang Lijuan (F) who audits and requests inventory of the Huodi military.
Appeal Courts	Large courts of the provinces where disagreements made in the provincial courts can be overturned. A person or entity failing in both the provincial and appeal courts will be given double the punishment.
Provincial Courts	Smaller courts scattered around the country that will call experts in the relevant schools of law to hear cases and decide upon judgements.

Huodi Schools of Law

Animal law - standing for animal protections especially livestock

Admiralty law - legal matters that take place in navigable bodies of water

Banking and Finance law - regulation of banking and finance institutions and how they conduct business within and with others

Civil Rights law - ensuring those of the different classes receive the same treatment as those among their class

Commerce law - covers matters relating to inter-business and merchants deals as well as price controls

Communication law - implements laws and regulations on the methods and manners people in the provinces can use to communicate

Debt law - pertaining to the payment of debts

Divine law - deals with protections of the Emperor as wells as instituting rules regarding blasphemy and heresy

Imperial law - ensuring the checks and balances of the provinces are not encroached upon and the Empire's power is not overridden

Merchant law - ensuring merchants are being fair to those of the Mandarin and Gozuo classes

Criminal law - system concerned with the punishment of those who commit crimes

Education law - covers matters relating to academies and the Imperial Examination

Art law - concerns performance, music, art, etc and determining value, compliance, etc

Employment law - ensuring those employed by merchants and businesses are treated fairly as well as auditing slave status

Environmental law - ensuring people will not damage the natural resources and reserves of Huodi

Family law - addresses relationships between family members and possible divorce

Health law - implements policies and laws regarding to doctors and medical ethics

Immigration law - deals with non-native Huodi entering into the Empire and the protections they are entitled to

Injury law - deals with counsel and recovery of loss from injury caused by another

International law - concerns of ambassadors and relationships with other nations

Mages law - covers matters relating to mages and their registration

Magic Use law - deals with regulations on what magic can be used for and the circumstances for that

Moral law - covers matters involving moral issues and preventing moral decay as well as enforcing taboos and traditions

Patent law - concerns with the protection of creative works such as inventions

Protection law - deals with issues pertaining to protection of the land other than military

Military law - deals with the rules, guidelines, and punishments of those in the military

Structure law - ensures buildings and structures are built according to code and keeping it that way

Tax law - ensures people pay the correct amount of taxes to their provinces and the correct amount is sent to the Imperial dynasty